

Cookie Statement

This website uses cookies. Cookies are simple text files that are sent along with pages from this website and stored by internet browsers on the hard disk of the computer or other devices such as a smartphone. Cookies cannot damage your device or the files on it.

You can find more information about cookies in general and de specific cookies this website places in our cookie settings. You need to confirm your cookie settings when you first visit our website. Your consent will be saved for 12 months. Then, the banner automatically reappears upon their first renewed visit to our website to renew your consent. You can easily change your preferences by clicking the icon in the left bottom of your screen.

Don't like cookies?

If you do not want cookies, it is possible to set your internet browser so that you are warned when a cookie is placed or even prevent cookies from being placed. The result is that you may not be able to use all parts of the websites you visit, or not optimally.

In addition, you can enable or disable specific types of cookies in your browser settings. Because every browser is different, we refer you to the settings of your own browser.

You can also choose to manually delete the cookies before their expiration date from your devices. Every browser offers this possibility. For this we also refer you to your own browser.

Do you have any questions about the cookies?

If you have questions or complaints about how we use cookies, please send us an email to communicatie@newenergycoalition.org. We kindly refer you to our privacy statement for more information.
